

Subject: International Career & College Counseling (IC3) Conference on 30-31 August 2017

Dear Student,

EducationUSA is pleased to be a content partner at the International Career & College Counseling (IC3) Conference on 30-31 August 2017 at the JW Marriott, New Delhi.

We would like to invite you to join this unique conference, bringing together school leaders, college counselors, teachers, and university representatives to drive transformative counseling and admissions practices in the higher education community. We also urge you to submit session proposals to present at the conference. The registration and proposal submission window is now open at www.ic3conference.com. Registration for high school representatives is subsidized at INR 4,550.

As a special additional opportunity for counselors, College Board is organizing an IC3 Pre-Conference Workshop on 29 August, entitled "Clearing a Path for High School Students to Own Their Future through Connections to Right-Fit Global Universities". Full details and workshop registration: www.ic3conference.com/program/pre-conference-workshop/

At the 2016 IC3 Conference, delegates from 12 countries participated in 35 sessions ranging from high schools investing in counselor offices to preparing students for 21st century careers. As content partners, we are looking forward to providing additional thought leadership, and we would be happy to partner with you to form a presentation panel as well.

Please visit www.ic3conference.com for full conference details, or feel free to reach out to our EducationUSA@USIEF teams at <http://www.usief.org.in/Study-in-the-US/USIEF-Centers.aspx>.

Best wishes,

EducationUSA India
