

IVY League MUN, Delhi
24th – 27th November, 2016

Sanskriti school sent a eleven member delegation comprising Tanvee Shehrawat, Lusha Jetley, Shreya Singh, Abhisri Nath, Anoushka Chandra, Gautham Sreeji, Daanyal Raza Khan, Shauryya Vira , Agastya Singh and head delegate Jiya Dhillon to the Ivy League Model United Nations Conference India 2016.

The conference hosted hundreds of delegates from different parts of the country and the world. The team put up a spectacular performance and competed in their best spirit while discussing issues of international importance ranging from cyber warfare to peacekeeping reforms. On the battlefield of diplomacy and advocacy, the team put in great effort and came out victorious with Agastya Singh, Daanyal Raza Khan and Shauryya Vira receiving verbal commendations, Anoushka Chandra receiving an Honourable Mention, Tanvee Shehrawat, Lusha Jetley and Abhisri Nath receiving the Outstanding Delegate award and Shreya Singh and Jiya Dhillon getting the Best Delegate award in their respective committees. While living up to all expectations, the delegation made Sanskriti even prouder by securing the Best Large Delegation Trophy .

Overall, the four days at ILMUNC India proved to be an amazing educational exposure and the students came back with fond memories.

ILM  NC India

THE IVY LEAGUE MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE INDIA 2016

BEST LARGE DELEGATION