

World Scholars Cup – Athens Global Round

The World Scholar's Cup (abbreviated as WSC) is an international team academic program with students participating from over 50 countries. The World Scholar's Cup has attracted what it calls "a global community of future scholars and leaders", and promotes that it allows participants to "discover strengths and skills you never knew you had." It focuses on bringing students from different cultures together to discuss issues and ideas relevant to today.

The Athens Global Round was held at the Megaron International Centre of Athens, and was attended by 660 students from 43 different nations, making it the most diverse global round in the history of the World Scholars Cup.

Sanskriti School sent a team of three students, comprising Aditeya Shukla, Agastya Pulapaka and Lusha Jetley to attend the Global round. They successfully cleared the Global round, securing many laurels in the process, and are now preparing for the Tournament of Champions at Yale University.
