

Visit of Fulbright-Nehru English Teaching Assistants July 25, 2016

Fulbright-Nehru English Teaching Assistantship Program was initiated by USIEF in 2009-10. The aim of the Program is to strengthen English language instruction and the study of the U.S. at Indian middle/secondary schools by establishing a native-speaker presence to provide part-time assistance to permanent teaching staff.

Sanskriti School hosted the current cohort of 5 English Teaching Assistants (ETAs) from America on July 25, 2016. Ethan Murray, Alina Aksiyote-Benardete, Ricardo Alberto, Joel Burt-Miller and Holly Hunter will be teaching in Government aided and NGO schools in Delhi for the next nine months.

The group was escorted by Kalden Shringla , a Sanskritian from the class of 2003. Kalden is currently working with USIEF, New Delhi.

Class 11 students gave the visitors a tour of the school and interacted with them.
