

KATHA CREATIVE WRITING SEARCH FOR EXCELLENCE

Katha in association with the CBSE is organising 'The Creative Writing Search for Excellence 2016'. All students from classes VI-XII are invited to send in their ORIGINAL writings (fiction/non-fiction, poetry or prose) in either English or Hindi. This is the first phase of this programme which will be followed by a Regional Writer's Workshop in the month of October, to be attended by a selected group of budding writers. The final stage is a three day national level workshop in the month of December.

Those interested must send their entries to entries014@gmail.com , latest by 19th August 2016. Those students whose articles are selected by the school will be informed. They would be required to pay an amount of 300/- as entry fee.

For more information refer to the following link:

<http://www.ilovereadng.in/>