CIRCULAR

Sub: Discontinuation of all Academic & Examination Activities for students of Classes IX to XII through physical mode.

With reference to Circulars No. DE.5/43/04/Exam/2019-20/39-46 dated 13.01.2021 and DE.5/43/04/Exam/2019-20/93-103 dated 29.01.2021 wherein Heads of Govt., Govt. Aided and Unaided Recognised Schools were allowed to call the students of Classes IX to XII with the consent of parents and following the Standard Operating Procedure for providing proper guidance regarding Mid Term & Annual Examinations related activities.

In view of the sudden surge in the cases of COVID-19 in Delhi, all the Heads of Govt., Govt. Aided and Unaided Recognised Schools are hereby informed that conduct of all Academic and Examination Activities through physical mode shall remain suspended with immediate effect till further orders. They are further directed to ensure that no student of Classes IX to XII is called in the school physically for any kind of Academic or Examination Activity (like Practice of Practicals, Mid Term & Annual Examination related work i.e., Practical, Project Submission, Assessments etc.) till further orders.

Also, it is once again reiterated (refer Circular No. DE.5/43/04/Exam/2018/459-464 dated 01.04.2021) that no student of any class shall be called physically in School till further orders. However, teaching learning activities may be conducted for the students through digital modes.
