

EdTech Summit and Design Thinking Bootcamp

About EdTech Summit

Design Thinking Bootcamp conducted by Ms Deepti Sawhney (CEO, Mahattattva) is scheduled to be held at Sanskriti School on November 23, 2019

Ms Sawhney and Mahattattva have been conducting the “Design Thinking for Social Change” program for several years, and are looking to encourage more educators and students to adopt learnings from Design Thinking and to incorporate them into their schools.

Design-Thinking Boot Camps is organized by Mahattattva in cities across India as a precursor to the main event on ‘CREATIVITY, INNOVATION and ENTREPRENEURSHIP’ that will take place on Feb 6-7, 2020 at NIIT University, Neemrana. This is a residential event and will involve registration fee to cover stay at the University Hostel, meals on all days, resources and travel to the University from Delhi NCR and back.

The purpose of the EdTech Summit is to use design thinking skills to come up with creative and unique solutions to problems faced by different communities and students from underprivileged backgrounds. Selected students will be required to develop a project that is sustainable, and mutually beneficial to you and the school/ community you choose to work with.

About Design Thinking Bootcamp (November 23, 2019)

We invite students of classes 8, 9 & 11 to attend the Design Thinking Bootcamp (no fee required) on November 23, 2019 to be held at Sanskriti School.

Students interested in taking part are required to answer the questions in this form and submit it by October 21, 2019.

On the basis of submitted responses, you will be shortlisted to attend the workshop on November 23, 2019 a final team will be selected accordingly.

If you have any queries, please contact Paribha Vashist (Class 12C).

Email ID: 4723@sanskritischool.edu.in

Submit Your Response to this form latest by Oct 21, 2019

<https://forms.gle/DapVf5MNvKBCQ8TA9>