

Book review by: Myra S. Choudhary

Title: The Christmas Carol

Author: Charles Dickens

Characters:

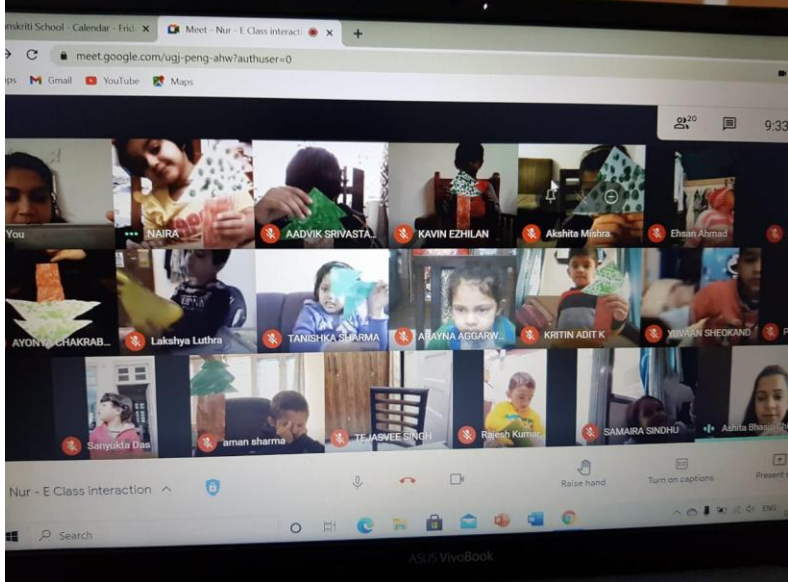

Ebenezer Scrooge - The miserly owner of a counting house. The three spirits of Christmas visit the mean old man in the hope of reversing his greedy, cold-hearted approach in life.

Jacob Marley - When he lived, he was Scrooge's equally greedy partner. He appears to Scrooge as a ghost, condemned to wander the world bound in heavy chains as repentance.

The ghost of Christmas past - The first to visit Scrooge, he is a red-robed, old man in a green robe. He takes Scrooge on a tour of his past.

The ghost of Christmas present - He is a glowing head and takes Scrooge on a tour of the present.

The ghost of Christmas yet to come - The third and final spirit to visit Scrooge. He is a silent phantom and shows him how people talk all about him after his death.

2.12.20 Cinderella - My Version

Cinderella smiled and declined politely to the Prince.

She sat confidently on a wheelchair in ordinary everyday clothes, with no makeup on, hair neatly tied up in a pony tail, wearing comfortable shoes and a book in a hand.

There were sparks in her eyes as she spoke "I have miles to go, got a degree, travel the world and find my dream job."

Stepmother and stepsisters were very proud of her.

Cinderella