

Year 1 AC (After Coronavirus)- Essay from Young Indians', organised by UNESCO and Takhte

Advay Iyer and Shounak Malhotra of 10H recently participated in a competition entitled Year 1 AC (After Coronavirus)- Essay from Young Indians', organised by UNESCO and Takhte. Both their essays were published on UNESCO's Facebook page as well as on their website, and will also be available in a publication to be released by UNESCO India later this year. The competition provided young essayists a platform to reflect their perspectives on the unprecedented nature of the unfolding crisis.

Their respective essay topics were:-

Stronger together and a new word for us: Solidarity (Advay Iyer, Week 9 Winners)

Science And Health – What Should We Change To Be More Resilient? (Shounak Malhotra, Week 5 Winners)

The articles may be accessed using the following link:-

<https://en.unesco.org/news/weekly-winners-year1ac-essay-competition-announced>