

Good Luck!

The path of life takes us through a gamut of experiences, challenges, triumphs, tests, successes and learning. The examination which you are about to appear for is one milestone among many of your life. Face it with determination and equanimity by delving into the treasure of values Sanskriti has given you over the years. Your sincerity and diligence towards your work will delineate your character. We wish you all the best and hope you make your mark as a proud Sanskritian.

Good Luck!
