Rules for formation

Key points about joining letters that we have followed:

1. Letters that end at the top, i.e. join horizontally to the letter that comes after them - f, o, r, v, w, j, q, y & g.
2. Letters that end at the bottom, i.e. join diagonally to the letters that comes after them - a, c, d, e, h, l, i, k, m, n, t, u, b, p & s.
3. X and Z are not joined to the letter which comes after them.
4. Z does not join with the letter which comes before it.
